Arts Center Welcomes Director of Marketing & Development Margo Hatton to Join Arts Center Team

(Pueblo, Colo.-October 20, 2020) The Sangre de Cristo Arts Center, Southern Colorado's premier multipurpose performing arts center where theatre, dance, visual arts, and artistic education all come together in Pueblo, Colorado, welcomes Margo Hatton, CFRE as the new Director of Marketing and Development.

Margo Hatton is a native of Pueblo with over 17 years of fundraising, marketing and non-profit management serving urban redevelopment projects, aerospace, higher education and health and human services. Hatton studied Public Administration at UCCS and received her Bachelor of Art in Art History from Principia College. She currently holds certification as a fundraising professional through CFRE International.

Her passion for community led her back to Pueblo to serve the Arts Center as it approaches its 50th anniversary milestone.

Hatton's passion includes connecting educational opportunities for art integration and expansion through collaborative community relationships.

Says Hatton, "I am thrilled to return to Pueblo and work with a community I admire and respect. The Arts Center has exciting plans and I look forward to joining the amazing staff to help drive the next 50 years."

About the Sangre de Cristo Arts Center:

The cultural hub of Southern Colorado, the Sangre de Cristo Arts Center gives visitors the tools to think and act creatively through a three building complex including seven galleries offering the best in historic and contemporary art by artists of local, regional and national renown. The Arts Center offers the Buell Children's Museum, recognized as the second-best for art by Child magazine, a 500-seat theater featuring a variety of performing arts programs, both local and national, and two gift shops. Over 100 fine arts, dance, and leisure classes are available quarterly providing unique offerings to everyone from children to adults of all skill levels. Admission to the Arts Center is $10 for adults, $8 for children, seniors 65+, and military. For more information, please call 719-295-7200; stop by the Arts Center located at 210 N. Santa Fe Ave., just off of I-25, exit 98B, or visit online at www.sdc-arts.org.
